ONCE UPON A TIME A FAIRY
INTO THE WORLDS OF CLIMBING
CHLOÉ GRAFTIAUX

She was nicknamed “Fée Clochette” ... (fairy Clochette, “Tinkerbel”)... and fairies are eternal!

It appears to anyone who has kept his/her child’s heart and his/her capacity to wonder. Over ten years, Chloé never changed her nick “borntoclimb” and her passion never stopped growing.

You could meet Chloé at a bolted crag, or dangling on a cam in an alpine multipitch route or big wall, placing screws in the ice, on a boulder somewhere at the other side of the globe, under the spotlight at a competition, on skis in the middle of nowhere,

Everything was fine to her, if only you could climb it!

Whenever it allowed her to share with others, to really go for it, that was perfect!

We, her parents, cannot keep this for us alone. We do this project of making a book accompanied with a DVD ... just to hear her laughter resonate again and again in our ears and in our heart.

Chloé opened a way where physical presence is unnecessary. Even if we are missing her immensely, she invites us over and over again to always live with passion. CHLOE GRAFTIAUX PASSION TOGETHER is created to allow other young climbers and mountaineers to go a little further with the same enthusiasm.
